Hearts for Hope

Luncheon to benefit House of Hope

Monday, Feb. 6, 2012
Sailfish Point Country Club
2203 SE Sailfish Point Blvd., Stuart

The Hearts for Hope luncheon will combine the features of House of Hope's annual Fashion Show and its inaugural Authors Series from 2011.

Headlining the event is best-selling mystery author Stuart Woods, a former Treasure Coast resident. He is an award-winning, prolific writer of detective thrillers, and one of his series is set in a fictional oceanside town near Vero Beach.

During lunch, volunteers will show off fashions from local boutiques as well as the House of Hope's resale stores. A silent auction will feature exquisite pampering items.

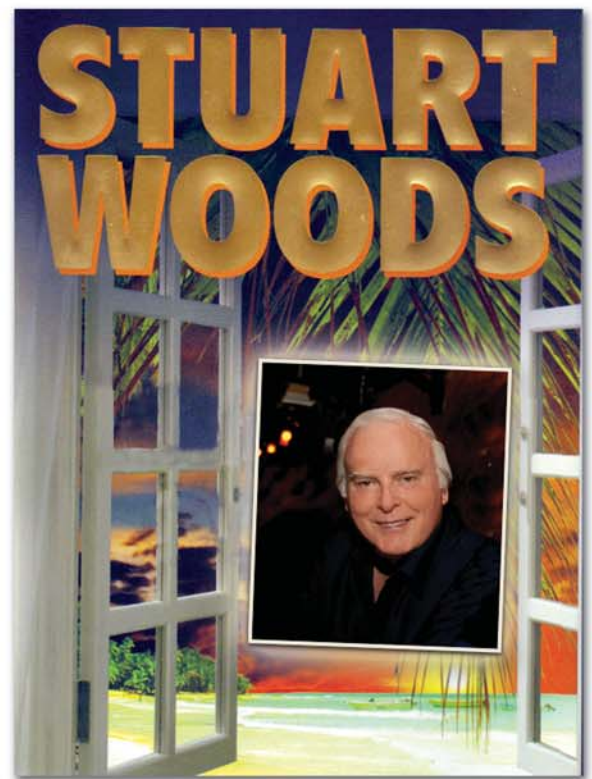

All these elements will come together for a spectacular event, attended by about 300 guests, as we aspire to raise $75,000 for House of Hope.

Reservations are $125 per person. Sponsorship opportunities also are available.
